
FAITH @ HOME

WEEK OF NOVEMBER 15, 2020

Some ideas for continuing to look back and above.

You might like to read Hebrews 11:1-3, 13-16 in a few translations this week.

Parents with littles – if you just need one or two ideas, the don't-miss ideas for young children are in green. Many of these are scalable for older and younger audiences by adjusting the language.

Black font is an all-play for children, teens, and adults.

Read:

- You may wish to read all of Hebrews 11 and discuss the people in the “faith hall of fame”.

Reflect:

- ? What examples of God's faithfulness can you think of in your own life?
- ? What promises has God made?
- ? How can we wait patiently for God to fulfill his promises?
- ? What does it look like to live in the present while longing for our future home?
- ? What do you think Heaven will be like?
- ? Referring to verses 13-16, have there been moments in your life that you've thought about giving up your faith?
- ? What “giants of the faith” (from the Bible, from history, people you know) do you admire?
- ? How have you seen God at work this past week?

Do:

- As a family, make a list of God's promises.
- Make a piece of art that represents Heaven.
- Do trust falls as a family. Stand in front of you child and instruct them to close their eyes and fall forward. Catch them and help your child to understand that even though we can't see God, He is always there and we can have faith.
- Look for God at work this week. You may wish to discuss as a family how you've seen God each day, or draw a picture, or designate a space for “God Sightings”. You could place sticky notes on the wall with different ways you've seen God at work.
