What should our minds be focused on? What does this mean?

Ask God to help you set your mind on things above and not on the things of this world!

Activity 1: Give your child a small bag of colorful candies (or use fruit such as grapes for a healthier option). Have your child say one thing that God wants him to think about before eating each candy.

Activity 2: Make your own checklist to decide if something is worth thinking about. What should your standards be for the shows you watch, music you listen to, games you play, etc? Decide on a list of standards and create a poster that you can refer to often. Hang this poster in a prominent location (such as by your television or computer).

Focus on Surrender

What does it mean to surrender?

Is it important to surrender control to God? Why or why not?
